

I am outraged by obvious lack of journalism being displayed by Sinclair to try to disguise this political anti-Kerry "documentary" as "news".

This demonstrates the need for more regulations on these major news organizations. These are our airways that they are trying to air their propropaganda. Please insure that they cannot disceive the American Public.